Light Company Official Announces Material Has Been Shipped.

GUARDS ASSEMBLE

Fifty Members of Machine Gun Outfit Leave Today For Camp.

THE HERALD BUREAU.
A. R. Douglas,
127 King Street.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Aug. 9.—The material for the construction of Alexandria's white way on King street is on the way to this city, according to information received by E. A. Feldkeller, general superintendent of the Alexandria Light and Power Company. The first section of the material was shipped a few days ago. The remainder was shipped today.

The white way will be erected in seven squares of King street between Fairfax and Patrick streets. It is expected to be completed the latter part of September.

Part of the cost of the construction of the white way will be borne by the merchants and property owners on the squares which are to be illuminated.

Fifty members of the Alexandria Machine Gun Company, commanded by Capt. Lawrence E. Gardner, will leave here at 8:40 o'clock tomorrow morning for a two weeks' encampment at the State range at Virginia Beach, Va. Members of the company spent the night at the armory. When the company arrives at Virginia Beach the advance guard will leave for the camp ready for the soldiers. Mackall R. Bruin, supply sergeant, has all of the company's effects packed for shipment.

A temporary injunction has been granted in the Corporation Court, Judge Robinson Moncre, presiding, in the case of Emmett A. Taylor against Robinson, et al. The injunction restrains Robinson or his associates or employees from interfering with the complainant, Taylor, in exercising his rights to hold a funeral and to hold a Memorial Service at the Taylor Memorial Chapel, Attorney R. B. Washington represents Taylor. Robinson is represented by Frank Stuart.

A farmer soldier carrying the following sign, painted in large black letters, passed through here: "My pal passed out in California by singing. I am earning to pay my doctor and funeral expenses. I hope my singing will please you for I shall do my best that you may see fit to contribute and accept my sincere thanks." It was signed "Ex-soldier 1267978."

Plans have been completed for a lawn fete which will be given tomorrow, Friday and Saturday nights on the lawn opposite the postoffice at Potomac, Arlington County, to raise funds for the benefit of the railroad strikers.

An important meeting of the street committee of city council will be held in the office of the city engineer at 8 o'clock tomorrow night. It will be the final meeting of the committee before the new council meets, September 1.

While on Russell road, a short distance north of the city limits, the automobiles of W. W. Hoxton, of North Rosemont, and Walter N. Spicer, 1218 V street southeast, Washington, collided last night. The machine owned by Mr. Spicer was damaged. No one was injured.

Miss Ruth M. Lacy, 24 years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Lacy, died last night at the residence of her parents near Accotink, Prince Georges County. The funeral will take place at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from Woodlawn Baptist Church. Burial will be in the cemetery at that place.

Local officials of the Southern Railway Company state that they have not received orders to fill the places of the striking men affiliated with the shop crafts.

The body of Coleman B. Spilman, a resident of this city, who died in Washington, was forwarded to tomorrow to Culpeper, Va. for burial. Rev. C. B. Jackson, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist Church, and a number of deacons of the church will accompany the body.

WEDS W. A. OSTMAN.
The marriage of Miss Helen Gould Freas, daughter of Mrs. Ellis Freas, and William Ostman, was solemnized last evening at 8 o'clock at the residence of the bride's mother, 1855 Harvard street. Father Hannermann, assistant pastor of the Church of the Nativity, performed the ceremony.

The bride, who was given away by her brother, Samuel A. Freas, looked very lovely in an exquisite gown of white satin richly embroidered with pearls and diamonds and with the panels on the skirt also embroidered in pearls and diamonds caught with pearls. The court train was embroidered in pearls. The tails fell in the back and were fastened with a Russian coronet also embroidered in pearls. She wore a string of pearls and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

The maid of honor was Miss Anna M. Freas, sister of the bride, who was clad in a salmon georgette gown embroidered in crystal beads and made on long lines. With this she wore silver slippers and a coronet of silver leaves in her hair. She carried a bouquet of roses. The bridesmaids were Miss Ella Lindaway, of Virginia, and Miss Bertha Freas, cousin of the bride. Miss Lindaway wore a gown of apricot georgette and silver leaves in her hair, and Miss Freas wore a gown of orchid georgette and lace; she also wore silver leaves in her hair.

Miss Elizabeth Freas, a niece of the bride, was flower girl. She was dressed in white baby lace and carried a basket of sweethearts. The train bearer was Carl Gordon Freas, nephew of the bride. The best man was Henry G. Ostmann, brother of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Rose Nolte, who played the wedding music, wore black satin embroidered in sapphires and diamonds. The mother of the bride was gowned in navy blue georgette embroidered in steel beads and Mrs. Anton Ostmann, the mother of the bridegroom, wore taupe georgette and lace embroidered in bronze beads.

Following the ceremony there was a reception, after which the newlyweds left for a wedding journey, the bride wearing a cape costume, riding in a blue sedan, and made with long flowing sleeves and a hat of black panne velvet trimmed with monkey fur.

PROTESTS VULGAR PLAYS PRODUCED IN LOCAL THEATER

Resolution by Clergyman Presented at Rotary Club Meeting.

A resolution, brought before the Rotary Club by Rev. Charles T. Warner, of St. Alban's yesterday, protesting against the "vulgar and degrading plays being produced by a local playhouse," has been referred to the club's board of governors.

Rev. Mr. Warner said that the matter had been brought to his attention by numerous persons who declared that the plays were having a bad effect upon the morals of their children.

W. W. Griffith, a local coal dealer, in a brief talk explained the manner in which dealers are now getting fuel to supply the needs of their customers. He pointed out that they must file a questionnaire with the Public Utilities Commission stating their most conservative needs. This is then turned over to a Federal committee, whose duty it is to see that the orders are filled as fully as possible.

The new constitution of Rotary was explained by Past Governor Edward Stock, and a motion was passed providing for its comparison with the club constitution.

In the absence of President William Knowles Cooper, Arthur Marks presided.
